IMPORTANT COVID-19 HEALTH AND SAFETY REQUIREMENTS

City of Rockville, Maryland properties and staff function under current COVID-19-related executive orders, health officer directives, and regulations. To learn about the most recent mandates, visit <https://www.montgomerycountymd.gov/covid19/orders.html> and www.rockvillemd.gov. It is the contract holders’ responsibility to ensure all event attendees and vendors read, understand, and follow without exception the important health and safety requirements outlined in this document.

- Visitors older than two years old will be required to wear a face covering while indoors at City-owned facilities. This requirement applies regardless of one’s COVID-19 vaccination status or negative PCR test.
 - Face coverings must always be worn unless actively engaged in the act of eating or drinking.
 - Face coverings may be removed temporarily for the purpose of giving a speech or performing for broadcast or an audience, if no one in a location accessible to the public is within six feet of you. Face coverings remain a requirement offstage or backstage, and all performers and presenters are encouraged to practice social distancing while on stage.
 - Please do not come to any City of Rockville property if you are sick with any COVID-19 or flu-like symptoms, are otherwise instructed to remain at home, or came into contact or share a home with anyone who tested positive for COVID-19 or is exhibiting COVID-19 or flu-like symptoms.
 - As COVID-19-related orders and directives change, City staff will update our policies.

OUTDOOR PHOTOGRAPHY POLICIES & PROCEDURES

General Information

- If there is a private rental or event on the property, Glenview Mansion, Cottage, and Formal Gardens (including the front lawn) are off limits to photographers and outside group gatherings – with no exceptions. Anyone attempting to occupy these parts of the property during a private rental or event will be asked to leave these areas promptly. This policy applies to family/friend photography sessions, homecomings and proms, other school and/or organization-related activity, etc. Please visit the Glenview Mansion webpage to learn when the property is closed to the public due to our rental or event schedule.

- Private outdoor photography where no monetary fee is taken (i.e. individuals taking cell phone photos, individual family photos, etc.) is allowed at Civic Center Park during regular park hours (sunrise to sunset) any day of the week provided there is no rental or event scheduled at Glenview Mansion, Cottage, and/or surrounding parkland.
- You are not guaranteed to have any part of the property to yourself during an outdoor photography session – you will need to share the space with park visitors.
- When the Civic Center Park grounds are not available due to rentals or events, the entire day is reserved and unavailable for photography. City staff do not provide rental times or other event information.
- There are no restrooms available or areas for dressing rooms during outdoor photography. In addition, there is no electricity available.

https://library.municode.com/md/rockville/codes/code_of_ordinances

Sec. 14-41. - Commercial activities.

- (a) A person may not sell, or offer for sale, any merchandise, article or thing in or upon City parks or at any City-sponsored special event without having first obtained a permit from the City Manager for a specific area or the special event. The City Manager may issue such permits and require the payment of such fees as are prescribed by resolution in the minutes of the meetings of the Mayor. As a condition of a permit, the City Manager may require the person to whom the permit is issued to place, or cause to be placed in receptacles provided for that purpose, all trash, in the nature of boxes, papers, cans, bottles, garbage and other refuse, generated by the sale of any merchandise, article or thing covered by the permit, within a reasonable area of the vending operation. The City Manager may require a cash bond from the permittee in the amount of seventy-five dollars ($75.00). The bond shall be forfeited in the event the permittee is unable or may fail to dispose of refuse in the manner prescribed.
- (b) A person may not practice, carry on, conduct or solicit for any trade, occupation, business or profession, without first obtaining written permission from the City Manager.

(Laws of Rockville, Ch. 7, § 7-3.01(i), (j))
