V. PLAYING RULES

- 1. Each coach will pitch to their own team of batters. The batter must make contact with the ball and hit it beyond the ten-foot arc in front of home plate to be considered a hit. If the batter does not make contact after seven pitches or five swings, a tee will be placed on home plate and the batter will hit a ball off the tee.

2. An inning will end after eight (8) batters or three (3) outs. The manager of the team must notify the umpire when the eighth batter comes to the plate. The sides change regardless of the number of outs at this time.

An 'out' consists of all conventional outs, but not including strikes.
3. Foul balls on the last swing do not count as a strikeout.
8. Bunting will not be permitted.
9. There is no infield fly rule.
10. A ball must go at least ten feet to be considered a hit – less than ten feet will be considered a strike.
11. Sliding, leading off bases, and base stealing are not permitted; violating this rule will result in an automatic out.
12. Play ends when the pitcher has the ball in the 8-foot radius of the pitching plate, or the ball is overthrown and goes out of play. A runner who is at least halfway toward the next base when the pitcher recovers the ball shall advance to that base.
13. The catcher may not block the plate when making a play at home plate.
14. Base runners must touch all bases; a runner missing any bases, as called by the umpire, shall be declared out.
15. Throwing the bat will result in a warning from the umpire for the first infraction per team and an automatic out for each succeeding infraction.
16. Play stops in the following situations: 1) when the ball reaches the first baseman prior to the batter runner; 2) when a batted ball is caught in the air by any defensive player; 3) on a force out to any base.
1. Covid -19 Guidelines:
 - a) Hand sanitizer should be available to players after touching the bats
 - b) All bats should be wiped down with a disinfecting wipe and/or liquid before and the game and practices.

6. Smoking is not allowed in the field or dugout area.
7. Alcoholic beverages are not permitted on the premises.

VIII. CONCUSSION AWARENESS

To help keep kids in the game for life, we ask that all coaches, parents, and participants become aware of concussion signs, symptoms, and prevention. The City of Rockville Sports Division has provided concussion awareness information on our website at www.rockvillemd.gov/recreation/sports, please review and become familiar.

Any participant who may appear to have or has a concussion may not return to play until the Sports Division has received a note from the participants’ doctor that states the participant has been approved to continue sport activity. The note must be received prior to the next league activity. This includes all practices and games. City of Rockville staff has the authority to sit a participant out of sport activity if any signs/symptoms of concussion are noticed. The purpose of this policy to keep all participants safe and healthy.

League Expectations, Policies/Disciplinary Measures

MISSION

The City of Rockville's Youth Sports Division mission is to promote participation in a safe, recreational setting to encourage fun, physical activity, teamwork, and sportsmanship. Programs are designed to meet participant needs for physical activity, social interaction, mentorship through positive coaching, fundamental skill development, and instill lifelong values in each participant.

EXPECTATIONS

The City of Rockville provides league rules that dictate how the program is operated and governed. In addition to these rules, coaches are required to get fingerprinted by the City of Rockville, become NYSCA (National Youth Sports Coaches Association) certified and sign a Coaches Code of Ethics Pledge. Parents/Guardians are strongly encouraged to read and sign the Parents Code of Ethics Pledge and return to your coach for the season. Both of these pledges represent the requirements that coaches and parents must embrace and use to serve as a role model to all participants.

The City of Rockville requires participants, coaches, spectators, and parents to exhibit good conduct and sportsmanship before, during, and after games and practices. Examples of good sportsmanship and conduct include but are not limited to:

- Fairness
- Ethics
- Respect

- Sense of fellowship
- Teamwork
- Positively encourage and congratulate all players and opponents as well as officials, city staff
- Understanding and promoting that this is a recreational league
